YOGA ON THE PIAZZA

9-10 A.M. | SUNDAY, MAY 12 | FREE

Despite illness, an accident that required more than thirty surgeries, and other hardships, Frida Kahlo triumphed through her art. Practice yoga on the Siffly Piazza with Isvari Verre an E-RYT 500 Anasura-inspired yoga teacher and therapist. Isvari has conducted workshops locally, regionally, and internationally, and is considered one of the most popular instructors in Atlanta. Allow the poses to express who you are—the way Frida painted as an expression of herself, her strength, her passion, her resilience.

Frida Kahlo (Mexican, 1907-1955), The Broken Column (La columna rota), 1944, oil on canvas, Collection of Museo Dolores Dinelo, Tuxtla Gutierrez, Mexico.

Isvari

I am not sick. I am broken. But I am happy to be alive as long as I can paint. —Frida Kahlo
